Computer Hardware Reviews for Filipinos that make sense

Disclaimer: These prices were found using online pricelists of the Computer Shops. There are several shops with pricelists online. The TipidPC (<http://www.tipidpc.com>) website lists a lot of parts online.

Try to ask for discounts if you'll buy everything at a single store.

Tips:

Establish a good relationship with the store you are buying from. Its sometimes better have a good "kakilala" rather than chase after the lowest price you can find. If you don't have a "kilala" then your friends, family, colleagues, classmates to refer you to a good computer sales person.
